NARRATIVE

2019-41858/Assault AM (Family Violence)

On 6/13/2019 at 2217 hours, I, Officer R. Gonzalez 12204 responded to 2604 Brazos Ave in reference to a 911 hang up. Male caller advised across his residence, there was a male and female arguing. Male caller advised it appeared the male was holding onto the female.

Upon arrival, I observed a male and female holding onto themselves on the ground. It appeared the male was restraining the female. I quickly detained both subjects as they both identified themselves as Sylvia Gonzalez [REDACTED] and Ruben [REDACTED]. Ruben advised his mother Sylvia wanted to take off in her vehicle and he was holding onto her since she was intoxicated. Ruben advised Sylvia had been in an altercation with his step father Noe Perez [REDACTED].

I then made contact with Sylvia who had visible injuries. Sylvia had a small laceration underneath her right eye and most of her face was swollen. Sylvia had redness to most of her face area and bruises to her arms and legs. Sylvia also had scratches to her neck area, arms and knees. Sylvia advised her husband Noe had assaulted her. Sylvia was uncooperative and did not want to tell me how the assault took place. Sylvia only advised that Noe had punched her multiple times in her face area. Sylvia advised that when she was on the ground, Noe started to kick her in her stomach area. Sylvia advised she managed to run away from Noe and wanted to leave location in her vehicle. Sylvia advised once she was on the front yard her son, Ruben, grabbed her, and prevented her from leaving. Sylvia advised Ruben was probably holding onto her due to her being intoxicated.

I then made contact with Noe who identified himself to me. Noe was standing by the front door carrying his son Jacob [REDACTED]. I observed about two or three scratches to Noe's face. The scratches started from Noe's upper right cheek to the lower part of his chin. Noe advised his wife Sylvia had assaulted him. Noe advised Sylvia, Ruben and him were drinking inside the residence. Noe advised he has been having personal issues with his wife Sylvia. Noe advised he found out that Sylvia was going to meet up with a male who she has been speaking with. Noe advised he confronted her and they both started to argue. Noe advised Sylvia decided to leave with their 1 year old son Jacob. Noe advised Sylvia grabbed their son Jacob, rushed outside with their son and placed Jacob on the car seat to their vehicle. Noe advised Sylvia left location with their son but just drove around the block. NARRATIVE (continuation) his son in his hands and was walking towards the front door of their house, Sylvia caught up to him and scratched him in his face area. Noe advised he continued to go inside the residence as Sylvia tried to leave again. Noe advised his step son Ruben jumped in and grabbed Sylvia to prevent her from leaving. Noe advised he was not willing to file charges against Sylvia for assaulting him and refused to provide an affidavit.

I asked Noe how his wife Sylvia ended up with the injuries as he replied he did not know. Noe could not elaborate how his wife was injured.

Noe denied assaulting Sylvia. Noe did have redness to his right knuckles. I asked Noe to show me the rest of his hands and he just laughed and advised me that he did not assault Sylvia. Both Noe and Sylvia showed signs of Intoxication.

It was determined that both Noe and Sylvia assaulted each other. I advised Sylvia and Noe that they were both under arrest for assault AM (family Violence). Due to Sylvia's severe injuries, Med-Care 171 transported Sylvia to STHS ER Freestanding located at 3700 Nolana Ave for further medical attention.

Sylvia advised she was willing to file charges against Noe for assaulting her but was intoxicated and could not provide an affidavit. Sgt Chavez went out to location and took photographs of Noe and Sylvia's injuries.

Noe was handcuffed, searched and transported to the jail section for booking procedures. Officer Perez #10043 remained at the hospital with Sylvia until she is medically cleared released and be transported to the jail section.

Sylvia's sister Maria [REDACTED] arrived to location and took custody of Jacob. Ruben was released and remained at location.
